Each year the Environmental Commission recognizes individuals, organizations, business and/or institutions, which have significantly contributed to the improvement of the local environment. At least Three awards (sometimes more) will be given and be based upon any one, or a combination, of the following criteria:

- Improvements in air, water, and soil quality (i.e., elimination and/or reduction of pollution).
- Elimination and/or reduction of litter and waste.
- Aesthetics (i.e., visual improvement through landscaping and/or architectural design).
- Educational projects that enhance environmental awareness.

The Environmental Commission wishes to assure that no deserving candidate for recognition is overlooked. Therefore, the Environmental Commission seeks nominations from a broad perspective of the community. Any project started or substantially completed in 2004, 2005 or to date in 2006 is available for recognition. If you know of any local individual, business, organization and/or institution that you think should be recognized for environmental improvement regarding Lexington-Fayette Urban County, please complete this form and return it to the name and address shown above postmarked on or before August 31, 2006.

Last years award winners were:

- Lexington-Fayette Urban County Government
- Lexington Fayette County Health Department
- Bluegrass Action
- Ashland Park Neighborhood Association
- Town Branch Trail, Inc.
- Jim Lempke, UK/LFUCG Arboretum
- Hamburg Place Development
